

The contribution of religions to peaceful coexistence in Society (video)

Our globalized world is subject to severe tensions

2013 was the year with more wars and violent conflicts since the end of the World War II

It is necessary to find a more stable foundation for peace

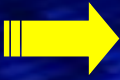

Global Ethics

Interreligious dialogue

The world needs rebirth through spiritual and ethical values

1. A Secular Age

1.1. Immanent humanism: etsi Deus non daretur

1.2. Scientism

2. Proposals to ensure peace

2.1. Global Ethics

2.2. Interreligious dialogue

3. Religions and peace from a Catholic perspective

3.1. Religion wars, an expression of immaturity

3.2. Nostra Aetate: interreligious dialogue and with non-believers

3.3. The Seeds of the Word (Semina Verbi)

4. The Spirit of Assisi

A Secular Age

Religion has withdrawn from the public sphere and Faith has become only one option among many

Process initiated during the Renaissance

Taylor: 3 types of secularization

A portrait of Charles Taylor, an older man with grey hair and a mustache, wearing a blue shirt. He is looking slightly to the right of the camera with a neutral expression.

1. Political: exclusion of God from the public space

2. Sociological: data on religious belief and practice

3. Existential: conditions for the experience of faith and the search for meaning

Immanent vision of reality, common to believers and non-believers

A SECULAR AGE

Two major trends:

- 1. Immanent humanism
- 2. Scientism

1. A Secular Age

1.1. Immanent humanism: etsi Deus non daretur

1.2. Scientism

2. Proposals to ensure peace

2.1. Global Ethics

2.2. Interreligious dialogue

3. Religions and peace from a Catholic perspective

3.1. Religion wars, an expression of immaturity

3.2. Nostra Aetate: interreligious dialogue and with non-believers

3.3. The Seeds of the Word (Semina Verbi)

4. The Spirit of Assisi

Immanent humanism

Justus Lipsius & Hugo Grotius

Based on practical reason (etsi Deus not daretur)

Today shared by believers and non-believers

Religion and ethics remained confined to the private realm

Scientism

It replaces ethical rationality by instrumental rationality

Valid if empirically verifiable

Ethics is reduced to utilitarian calculation of maximum benefit

The Frankfurt School

very critical of Scientism

The Nazi Holocaust: a manifestation of the dark side of Modernity

1. A Secular Age

1.1. Immanent humanism: etsi Deus non daretur

1.2. Scientism

2. Proposals to ensure peace

2.1. Global Ethics

2.2. Interreligious dialogue

3. Religions and peace from a Catholic perspective

3.1. Religion wars, an expression of immaturity

3.2. Nostra Aetate: interreligious dialogue and with non-believers

3.3. The Seeds of the Word (Semina Verbi)

4. The Spirit of Assisi

Habermas - Ratzinger

It is necessary some dialectic interaction between philosophy and religion in public life

Natural reason is not sufficient to grasp the depth of meaning of human existence

Global ethics

◆ Two groups:

1. Those who lay inter-religious dialogue as a foundation (R. Panikkar, H. Küng, L. Boff)
2. Those who advocate for global ethics:
 - a) Ontological foundation for ethics (H. Jonas, K. Jaspers, D. Henrich, V. Höhle)
 - b) New anthropological and political formulation (E. Morin, W. Huber, H.-R. Reuter, E. Lévinas)

Interreligious dialogue

Küng: best response to the current daring challenges

Religions are the instances more capable of appealing to the man in all his dimensions (video)

1. A Secular Age

1.1. Immanent humanism: etsi Deus non daretur

1.2. Scientism

2. Proposals to ensure peace

2.1. Global Ethics

2.2. Interreligious dialogue

3. Religions and peace from a Catholic perspective

3.1. Religion wars, an expression of immaturity

3.2. Nostra Aetate: interreligious dialogue and with non-believers

3.3. The Seeds of the Word (Semina Verbi)

4. The Spirit of Assisi

Dialogue is rooted in the very essence of God

God's self-communication presupposes a personal recipient who can respond in freedom

All the official documents of the Second Vatican Council should be read from an ecumenical perspective

Vatican II: dialogue a top priority

"An intrinsic requirement of the Christological event"

"we cannot truly call on God, the Father of all, if we refuse to treat in a brotherly way any man" (NA 5)

Religion wars: an expression of immaturity

The divine pedagogy respects the historical dimension of man and his gradual purification

The security of faith enables witness and dialogue with all

1. A Secular Age

1.1. Immanent humanism: etsi Deus non daretur

1.2. Scientism

2. Proposals to ensure peace

2.1. Global Ethics

2.2. Interreligious dialogue

3. Religions and peace from a Catholic perspective

3.1. Religion wars, an expression of immaturity

3.2. Nostra Aetate: interreligious dialogue and with non-believers

3.3. The Seeds of the Word (Semina Verbi)

4. The Spirit of Assisi

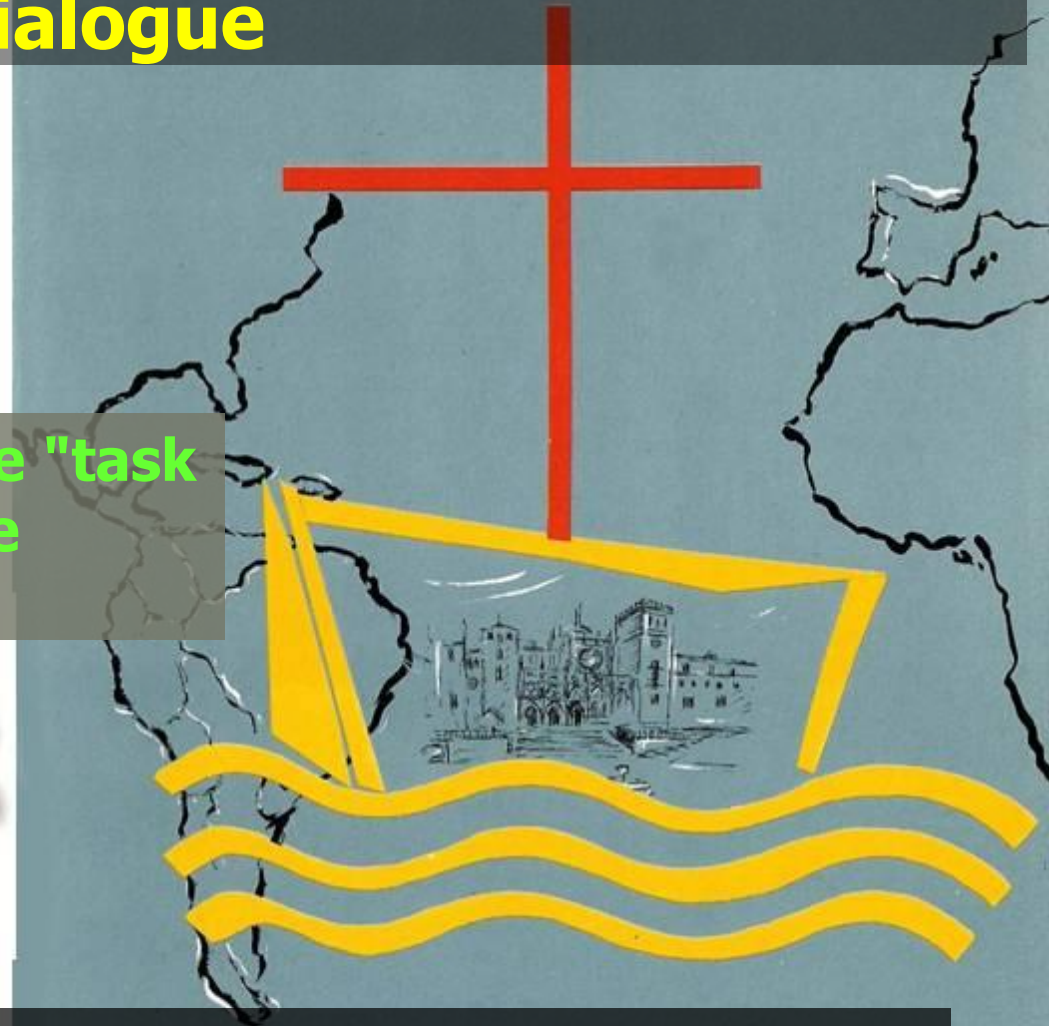

Nostra Aetate: interreligious and intercultural dialogue

The Catholic Church has the "task of promoting unity and love among men

"Among religions, there are points of contact, both internal and external"

Dialogue with the monotheistic religions (Islam and Judaism)

They share with Christians a common belief in father Abraham

“Dialogue between Christians and Muslims is a vital necessity, on which in large measure our future depends”

Interreligious dialogue: a constant concern of the post-conciliar Magisterium

It "does not originate from self-interest"
It doesn't diminish the urgency of the mission

1. A Secular Age

1.1. Immanent humanism: etsi Deus non daretur

1.2. Scientism

2. Proposals to ensure peace

2.1. Global Ethics

2.2. Interreligious dialogue

3. Religions and peace from a Catholic perspective

3.1. Religion wars, an expression of immaturity

3.2. Nostra Aetate: interreligious dialogue and with non-believers

3.3. The Seeds of the Word (Semina Verbi)

4. The Spirit of Assisi

"One is the community of all peoples, one their origin; One also is their final goal, God"

God has planted the Seeds of the Word in every human being. 26

The world is watered by the Seeds of the Word

Christians are called to establish a "sincere and patient dialogue" with all peoples

4. The Spirit of Assisi

The Spirit of Assisi (video)

The Assisi meeting (1986) was very effective in showing that peace is a priority objective for all religions

Religions can play a key role in laying the foundations of peaceful coexistence in the globalized world

Conclusion

War is big business.
We need a "mental disarmament" from greed, hatred, prejudice...

"Homo homini lupus"

"Since wars begin in the minds of men, it is in the minds of men that the defenses of peace must be constructed"

Religion (re-ligare) is devoted to build community

Through personal encounter, forgiveness and trustful relationship

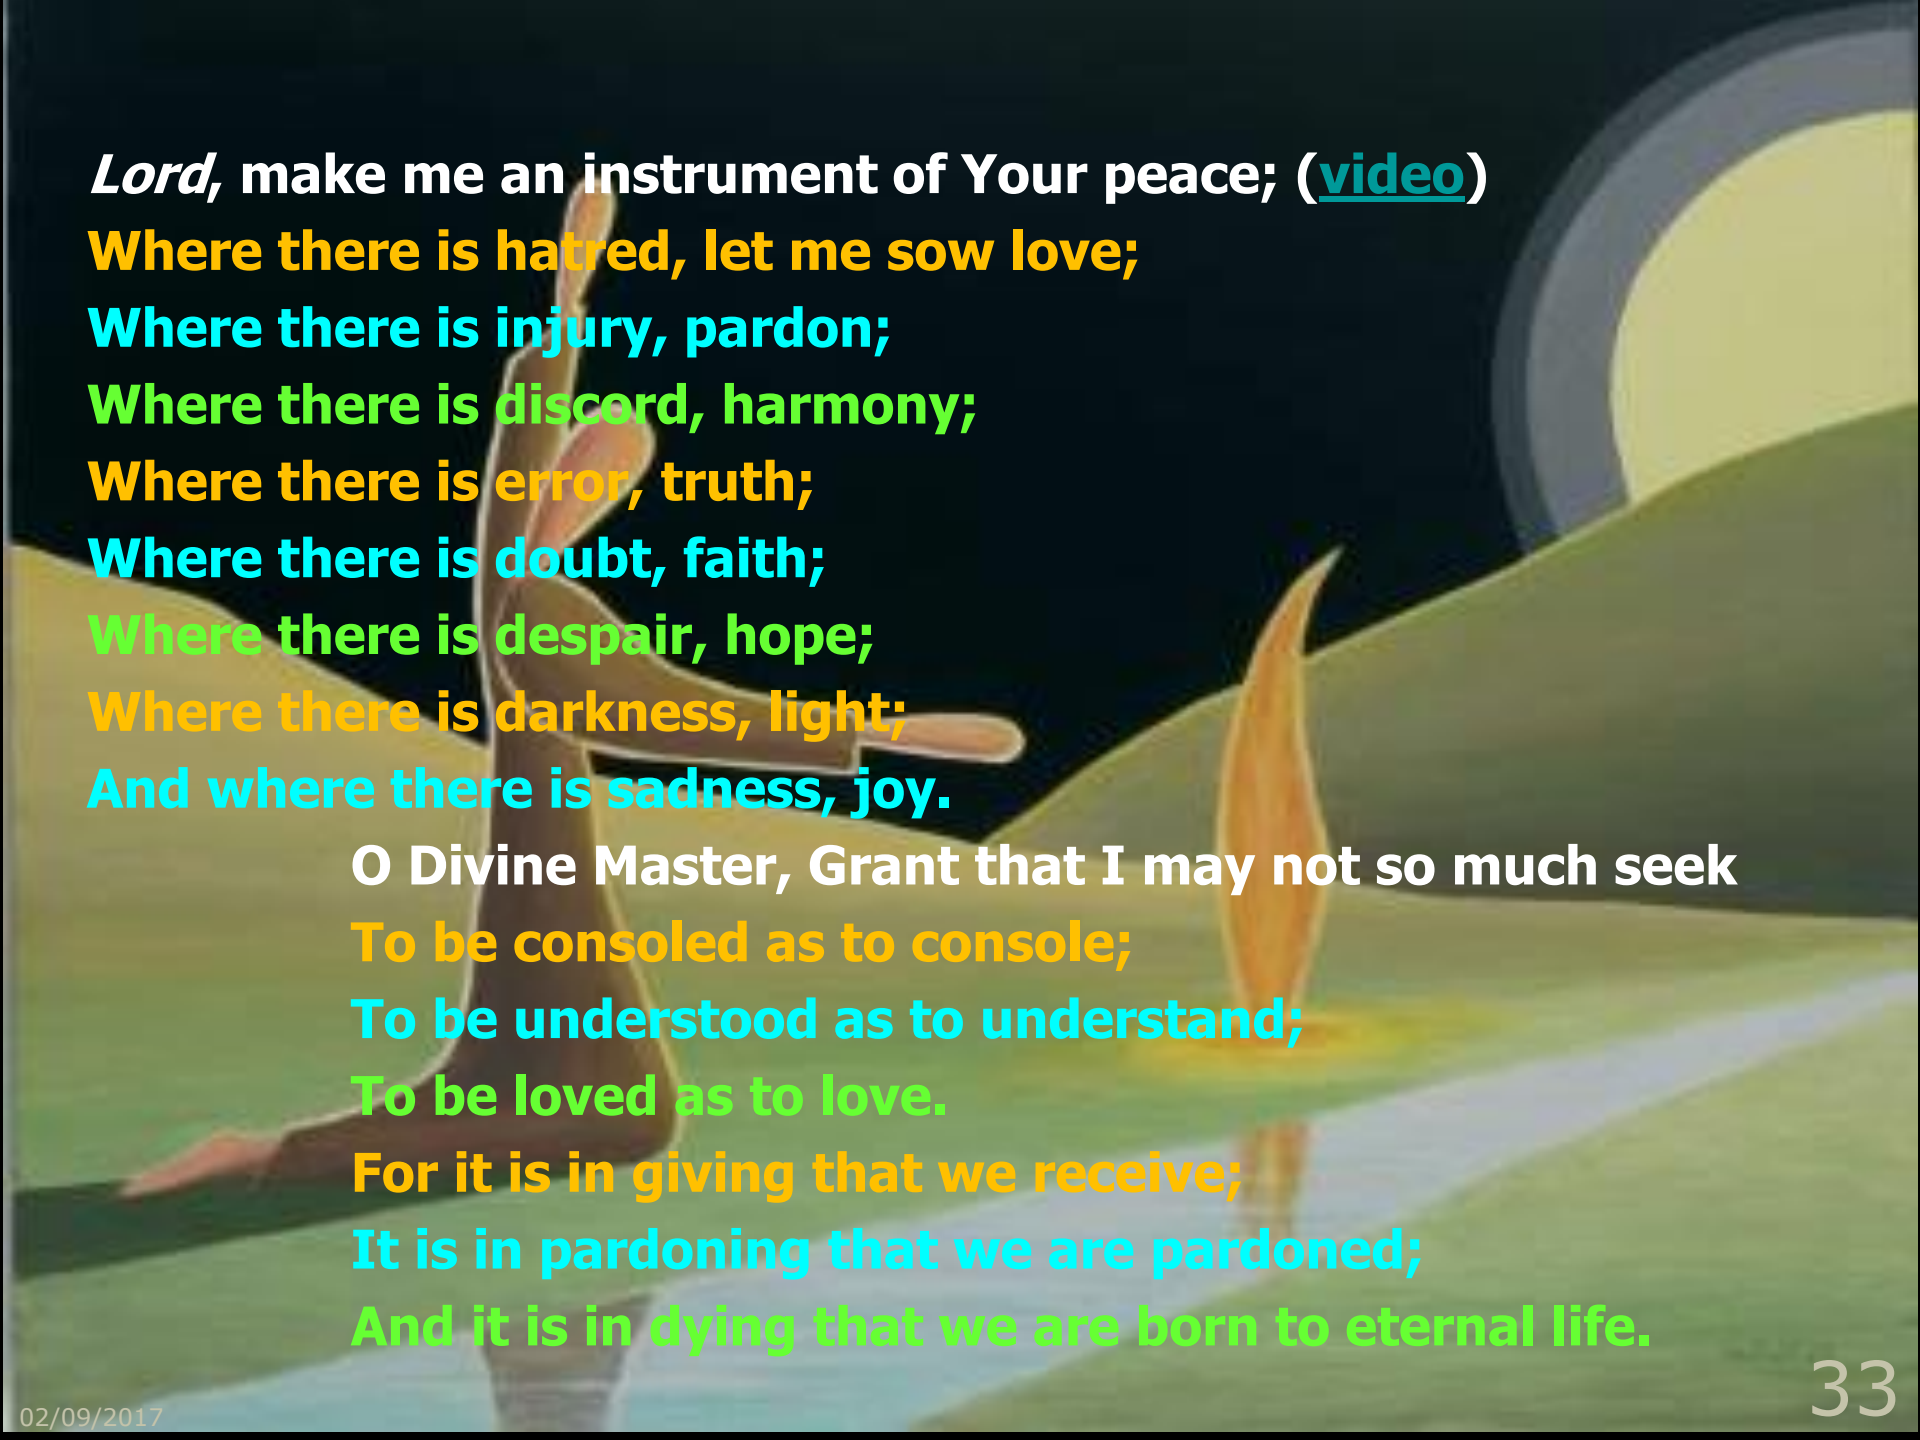

Man, "by its very nature, stands completely in need of social life" and should always be "the beginning, the subject and the goal of all social institutions" (GS 25)

Religions have a long tradition of wisdom

Renowned worldwide for their devotion to helping vulnerable people

Religions open humans to the contemplation of beauty

Even death becomes a sister...
At that solemn moment we will be examined on love

Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace; (video) Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is discord, harmony;
Where there is error, truth;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light;
And where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, Grant that I may not so much seek To be consoled as to console;
To be understood as to understand;
To be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive;
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

Appeal signed by religious leaders (1993)

"May no hatred, no conflict, no war be kindled by religions!"

May the words spoken by religions always be words of peace!

May the way of faith lead to dialogue and understanding!

May religions guide hearts to bring peace on earth!

May religions help all men and women to love the earth and its peoples both great and small!
