

BEING A FRANCISCAN IN THE DIGITAL AGE

New Challenges, New Life.

This book presents the present relevance of the Franciscan charism and tradition in facing the socio-environmental and communicative challenges of our globalized society. The Franciscan perspective fits well with the type of horizontal, intuitive, and interactive communication that predominates in the digital age. Francis of Assisi is also universally recognized as a model of dialogue and integral ecology. By recovering the core of their own charism, Franciscans will be able to nurture "a more passionate concern for the protection of our world" and will be able to foster authentically human communication.

THE AUTHOR:

Martin Carbajo Núñez, OFM, was born in Figueruela de Arriba (Zamora). He has a Doctorate degree in Moral Theology (Alfonsianum, Rome), a License degree in Germanic Philology (Santiago de Compostela Univ), a Master in Social Communication (Gregorian Univ., Rome), and is a qualified computer technician. He currently teaches ethics and communication at three universities: two in Rome: Antonianum (PUA) and Alfonsianum (PUL); one in the USA: the FST, (Univ. of San Diego CA). At the PUA, he has been Vice-Rector and Rector Magnificus ad interim. He has edited two volumes on Duns Scotus (Rome 2008, 1008 pages) and others about the Franciscan perspective on global ethics, economics, communication, and ecology, four of them with more than six editions each.

Media House®

375-A, Pocket 2, Mayur Vihar-I, Delhi-110091

Phone: 09555642600, 07599485900

E-mail: books.mediahouse@gmail.com

www.mediahouse.online

www.facebook.com/mediahousebooks

Price: ₹ 395/- US $ 10

ISBN: 978-93-90608-69-0

9 789390 608690