

JPIC Course 2018 – Evaluation

Please respond to each topic with a numerical evaluation (1 is the lowest score, and 5 is the highest score)

1. Overall Program	4.5
2. Schedule	3.8
3. Venue/Room	4.4
4. Simultaneous translation	4.1
5. Individual presenters
a. Gerardo Cruz González “Sociopolitical History of Immigration in America”	4.6
b. Rafael Hernández López “Social, Economic, Political Violence and Climate Change”	4.5
c. Melissa Angélica Vértiz Hernández “The Unfair Distribution of Wealth: social Inequality”	4.3
d. Tomás González, OFM “Physical and Symbolic Walls: Prejudice, Xenophobia, Fear and Discrimination”	4.8
e. Melissa Angélica Vértiz Hernández Victor Hugo Carlos Banda “Corruption of Authority: Who to Trust?”	4.3
f. José Luis González Miranda “A Biblical Interpretation of the Migratory Phenomenon: To Overcome Walls that Prevent the Fraternity”	4.6
g. Field trip to Casa “FM4 paso libre” “Meeting with Migrants and Refugees”	4.7
h. Pedro Pantoja Arreola “The Slavery of the 21st Century: Kidnapping, Human Trafficking, Sexual and Labor Exploitation”	4.5
i. Irazú Gómez “Migratory Policies: Natural Person vs Corporation”	4.2
j. Martín Carbajo, OFM “Care for Sister Earth: Common Good and the Right Not to Migrate”	4.9
k. María Bobadilla, Ramón Márquez “Religion and Culture: Opportunity for Encounter, Dialogue and Welcome”	3.8
l. Martín Carbajo, OFM “Experience of Work and Common Good in the Spirituality of St. Francis of Assisi”	4.9
m. Juan Rendón, OFM “Franciscan Humanism: Calls for Sociopolitical Advocacy”	4.5
6. Hospitality
a. Room	4.7
b. Meals	4.6
c. Other Services	4.6