

SCOTUS DAY EVENT

The Fall 2023 Scotus Day Event will focus on the Franciscan vision of the economy, which had a remarkable development during the 13th and 15th centuries and remains relevant today. This fact was recently recognized by Pope Francis when he convened a world meeting of young economists in Assisi, “The economy of Francesco,” (Nov. 19-21, 2020) to promote a more fraternal economic system, more attentive to the poor and the environment.

Franciscan Influence on the Market Economy

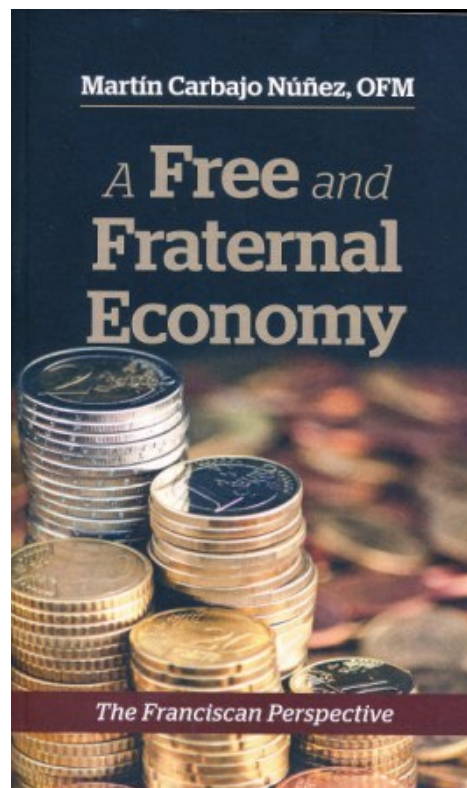

(Room 339 & Zoom)

Nov. 8, at 4 pm

Register online for Zoom Link

languages; among them, “A Free and Fraternal Economy: The Franciscan Perspective”. This book is the fruit of his extensive research on the contribution that the Franciscan friars made, during the thirteenth to fifteenth centuries, to understand, accept, and humanize the incipient market economy, founding financial institutions like the “Mounts of Piety.” For more information on prof. Carbajo visit www.antoniano.org

Click here to Order this book

More information: jdscotus@ctu.edu